Product Description. The Territory Turbo has tremendous potential, which can quickly be unleashed with the fitment of the Manta Performance Exhaust System. The full turbo back system replaces the entire standard exhaust system, freeing up the turbo and reducing lag, whilst improving top-end performance and reducing fuel consumption due to its higher flowing design that allows the engine to operate more efficiently.

Ford Territory is arguably the best vehicle ever designed by Ford Australia. Indeed some even say it may be the best automotive design in Australia bar none. Territory is based on the Ford Falcon and shares some of its mechanical components, particularly in the powertrain, but many parts are unique to the big wagon.
