Calligraphy can be written with any wide chisel-shaped tool, whether it ’ s a pen, a felt, or the reed from a musical instrument! The key is the chisel-shaped edge used to make the letters. By holding the chisel edge at a consistent angle and moving it around your paper, it will create thin and thick lines automatically for you.

Now the magic happens. The basics of real calligraphy is to apply pressure on any down strokes while writing, creating a mix of thick and thin lines. This same concept applies to faux calligraphy. You want to draw in the outline of a thicker line on any part of the letter that was a down stroke when you wrote it initially.
