They are called
"double-dip"
because they are
two different
feelings that happen
at the same time,

sort of like two
flavors of ice cream
scoops right on top
of each other. With an ice cream cone,
double dips are fun,
because you get to
have twice as much
ice cream as a single scoop. But
with feelings,
double dips usually
aren't so much fun.
When kids have

these kinds of feelings, they often feel confused and uncomfortable.

This is the first book I have found
which normalises
for young children
having two feelings
at once. Such an experience can be confusing especially when feelings are opposites. The book not only normalises it but helps children verbalise and deal constructively with their feelings. There are helpful suggestions for parents.
