The Secret of Literacy is an essential book for all teachers and school leaders. It is not just another literacy book. David Didau provides a crystal clear rationale for all teachers taking responsibility for developing literacy in their specialist areas, with lots of very practical ideas, drawing on a range of sources from blogs and the latest literature on the issue.

The Secret of Literacy: Making the implicit, explicit ... In the concluding chapter of the book, Didau explains why literacy is so important and that we must model literacy by making the implicit explicit. The secret of

The Repair Shop is filmed at The Weald and Downland Living Museum, just outside Chichester. It's situated by the South Downs National Park, making for a picturesque location.

Where is The Repair Shop filmed and who pays for the repairs?

This is a serious business and, as David highlights, too much of what we do in the name of literacy, isn't literacy at all. The book is challenging us to do better and shows us how. 'Making the implicit explicit' captures the key message, but 'The Secret of Literacy' is more than a set of tools; it is a call to arms!
