"From This Moment On" is a 1950 popular song written by Cole Porter, which has since become a jazz standard. It was originally written for the 1950 musical Out of This World, but director George Abbott dropped it from the musical before its Broadway premiere, possibly due to lackluster singing by cast member William Eythe.

From This Moment On\u201d means to us. Our beliefs about ourselves, our choices, and our opportunities are determined by 3 things; environment (what we're exposed to), experiences (what we've been through), and education (what we've been taught to believe about who we are, where we can go in life, and what our story can be).
