Molvania: A Land Untouched By Modern Dentistry is a spoof travel guide to a fictitious Eastern European country, written by Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner and Rob Sitch. The cover bears effusive praise from the Observer, the Daily Telegraph and Time Out ("It will be genuinely surprising if anyone publishes a funnier book this decade").

Molvan î a (subtitled A Land Untouched by Modern Dentistry) is a book parodying travel guidebooks. The guide describes the fictional country Molvan î a, a post-Soviet state, a nation described as "the birthplace of the whooping cough" and "owner of Europe's oldest nuclear reactor". It was created by Australians Tom Gleisner, Santo Cilauro and Rob Sitch (locally known for The D-Generation and The ...

I couple of days ago when I was down in Cornwall I came across this book in a local bookshop called "Molvania: A land untouched by modern dentistry". After reading the first section I had come to the conclusion that this travel-guide spoof was probably the funniest book I have ever read. If you still can't really be bothered to get it, maybe a few quotes should help.
