A quick glance at the title might suggest that this book is a review of current paediatric anaesthesia practice. In fact a more appropriate title, e.g. Pediatric Anesthesiology Clinical Cases for Self-Assessment, would more clearly set out this book's purpose. Based on the curriculum developed by the Pediatric Anesthesia Department at Children's Hospital Boston, the authors' aim is to promote 'an ability to explain why various data are required before or during the care of a ...
