The Boggle Display Pack makes it so easy for me to set-up this much-loved interactive word game in my classroom! It helps my students to be more observant for letter-patterns and graphemes. It extends their vocabulary and introduces them to concepts like 'horizontal', 'vertical' 'diagonal' and 'backwards'.

Maternal behavior appears to be self-reinforcing. Studies show that the levels of dopamine increase in the nucleus accumbens (a region of the brain) when a female displays maternal behavior. When the puppies become older, the mother educates them. She gives them the first lessons in dog language at the time weaning occurs.
