A CATHOLIC FUNERAL PLANNING GUIDE

As human beings, we have an intense need to say goodbye to our loved ones and to commend them to God. The Church's rites reflect that need, as her prayers accompany the deceased beyond this life. There are three parts to a Catholic funeral. First, there is a vigil service, which typically takes place the night before the funeral. Here, family and friends gather to "be with" and "watch over" the body of the deceased.
