Ethics Of. The Ethics Of. Euthanasia. It's a fun little debate that pops up every couple of years: do we have a right to choose to die? It's a fascinating question that taps into some of the biggest social debates; the sanctity of life, the right of individuals to make their own decisions, and the question of whether patient, family and doctors), religious and legal dilemmas since many people see

Euthanasia as a suicide masked as a mercy or compassionate death.

The main difference is that euthanasia is considered a mercy kill or death because the physician administer a lethal medicine.
