Stormtroopers were specialist soldiers of the German Army in World War I. In the last years of the war, Stoßtruppen were trained to use infiltration tactics - part of the Germans' improved method of attack on enemy trenches. Men trained in these methods were known in Germany as Sturmmann, formed into companies of Sturmtruppen. In later times, the term "Storm Troops" became associated with Nazi Germany, due to its use for the Nazi Sturmabteilung militia. However, in the original context of ...

Right from the start, the stormtroopers were considered the elite of the German army... and they knew it. Celebrated in the national press for their dash and daring, stormtroopers were lavished with plentiful rations and comfortable living conditions. Assault teams rarely if ever manned the trenches like their rank and file comrades.
