This is the third gripping tale in the four-part audio series from Stephen King's best-selling book Four Past Midnight. Set in Junction City, Iowa, "The Library Policeman" is the story of Sam Peebles, a middle-aged businessman who happens to have some overdue books.

Three Past Midnight: The Library Policeman by Stephen King

Library Policeman knocked me on my ass. Even then I knew it was the best-written novella in the collection, it's by far the most vivid and disturbing, and it's simultaneously the one I've wanted to see adapted to film

This is the third gripping tale in the four-part audio series from Stephen King's best-selling book Four Past Midnight.. Set in Junction City, Iowa, The Library Policeman is the story of Sam Peebles, a middle-aged businessman who happens to have some overdue books. It seems a minor offense—but not to Junction City's malevolent monster of a librarian.

"The library is a gathering pool of narratives and of the people who come to find them. It is where we can glimpse immortality; in the library, we can live forever." This book follows, and is a thorough investigation, into the Los Angeles public library fire. This fire occurred on April 29 1986 and destroyed more than 400,000

The Library Policeman may be unknown to some casual Stephen King fans because it is actually a novella in his book Four Past Midnight, along with The Langoliers, The Sun Dog, and Secret Window, Secret Garden. All of these titles are available separately from HighBridge audio with differing narrators, unlike Different Seasons, which was released by Recorded Books back in the early 80's with ...
