The Code on Wages, 2019 was introduced in Lok Sabha by the Minister of Labour, Mr. Santosh Gangwar on July 23, 2019. It seeks to regulate wage and bonus payments in all employments where any industry, trade, business, or manufacture is carried out. The Code replaces the following four laws: (i) the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, (ii) the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, (iii) the Payment of Bonus Act ...

The Bible says that "the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). This not only refers to physical death, but to eternal separation from God: "But your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear" (Isaiah 59:2). This is the foremost consequence of man's rebellion against God.

By seeing how a text is made irrelevant, we turn the text into an alien object, and thereby bring to bear an intensified level of scrutiny. Disturb in order to discover. Rather than take the context of the text for granted, we seek to find the limits of meaning built into the text, the point at which it becomes alien to us, and in so doing, we discover something new about it.

The wages graphed are real wages, so are adjusted to take account of changes in prices. Whilst the graph looks fairly constant between 1264 and 1850 compared to the rapid increase since 1850, the average real wage actually almost doubled and then halved again between 1264 and 1600 (look at the scale on the vertical axis).
