The author, who was not a submariner, was ordered to join the crew of a U-Boat and to bring back photographs for propaganda purposes.

Very soon he became appalled by what he saw and, using his unlimited stocks of film, began to photograph everything around him. Eventually he secreted away over maximum submarine effort for the first month of the war, with almost all the available U-boats out on patrol in September. That level of * The U-boat was lost during this patrol. Otto Kretschmer's achievements can clearly be seen on this list. He took his U-99 out on 8 patrols and 5 of those are on the top 10 best patrols by tons sunk per day! Jenish's score of a single 42,348 ton ship during a 6-day patrol is also impossible to beat.
