actually equality in the best form. Due to the fact that women are born with the ability to give birth to children, and are naturally better equipped to care for a newborn's needs, Islam has assigned them a more central role in terms of the upbringing of children.

Gender Equality in Islam | Islam Ahmadiyya

Islam proclaims that all human beings, men and women, are born in a pure state. The goal of every Muslim is to preserve this purity by shunning evil tendencies and beautifying their inner being with virtuous traits. Islam further confirms that both men and women are equal in the sight of God.

We must recognise the ways in which our upbringing and experiences shape how we view the relationship between the sexes. In Muslim circles, oftentimes the conversation surrounding the role of men and the role of women centres around what one gender should do for the other. However, without having a comprehensive understanding of the relationship between men and women in Islam, it can leave room for oppression, misunderstanding, and/or one party not fulfilling their rights.
